

Please! Keep diversity in reporting. I grew up in Paris during the German occupation and we used to listen to the BBC because the news in the French newspapers couldn't be relied on. Now I find myself reading The Figaro and La Nation because American newspapers can't be relied on for accurate news. Don't limit our choices even further..